

A workshop entitled 'Thirsty for information – a workshop for the beverage industry' will take place in

University College Dublin

on

Tuesday 1st June 2010.

This workshop will address:

Developing drinks with health benefits

Non-thermal technologies for beverage preservation

The electronic tongue – its application to beverages

Ways of preventing beer spoilage

Enterprise Ireland supports for the beverage industry

To download the workshop programme, registration form and map, please click here : Thirsty for information – a workshop for the beverage industry

For further information, please contact:

Dr Breda Mulvihill

RELAY - research for the food industry

Teagasc Food Research Centre,

Ashtown,

Dublin 15.

Tel:01 805 9564 or Mob: 086 605 3354

Email: breda.mulvihill@teagasc.ie